TENNYSON POEM
ON BIJOU SCREENKlaw and Erlanger's Film Production of "Dora" Has Splendid Cast."Dora," Lord Alfred Tennyson's famous poem dramatized by Charles Reade and produced by Klaw and Erlanger is the chief offering on the Bijou screen today. It is in three acts. The cast includes Gretchen Hartman, Franklin Ritchie, Isabel Rea, Jack Drummer and several other well known photoplay artists. A two act comedy, "A Difference of Opinion," another comedy in one act called "Think It Over," and a Hearst-Selig News Pictorial are also shown.Special attention is called to the five act V. L. S. E. feature, "The Climbers," which will be the big attraction Thursday. This popular play by the late Clyde Fitch will equal any picture of the season in fine acting and heart interest. "The Climbers" is an impelling drama and deals in stirring situations and great climaxes. It is a beautiful story, too, and calls for an unusually elaborate setting and a cast considerably above the average in historic ability. Gladys Hanson takes the part of Blanche, George Soule Spencer as Ned Warren, and Walter Hitchcock that of the husband. "The Climbers" is truly a powerful play, without being sensational or overdrawn.Miss Irene Hunt, A. D. Sears and a host of other talented Mutual screen favorites are seen in "The Stronger Man," a story of unusual heart interest, today at the Star theater. Other good picture subjects are also shown.
Tomorrow, Murdock MacQuarrie and other Universal stars will be seen in "Tam O'Shanter" suggested by the poem of Sir Robert Burns. Miss Grace Cunard will be seen in the cast. It is in three parts.The distinguished actor, Nat Goodwin, supported by an all star cast of Broadway players, is featured in the Universal Broadway feature film of Octave Mirabeau's great Parisian tragedy, "Business Is Business" in six acts at the Orpheum theater today. In this extraordinary photoplay Mr.
Goodwin scores a great triumph and spectators are held nearly breathless at times by his wonderful impersonation.Tomorrow, beautiful and well loved Miss Betty Nease with the able support of a clever cast of noted players will be seen in the leading role of her great success, "In the Hour of Temptation," in five gorgeous acts."The Wild Olive," the most elaborate production ever presented by the Oliver Morosco Photoplay Company, is adapted from the celebrated novel by Basil King, which took two continents by storm. This notable feature pictureattraction is the special offering today at the Robinson Grand. The brilliant scenes of this famous love story of the New York aristocracy shift in kaleidoscopic succession from grandeur of the lumber regions in the for-estress. She is assisted by by handsome Forrest Standley, who has caused more than one feminine heart to flutter.
The added attraction on this program is the Paramount Travelogue.
Tomorrow, Frederick Perry and aScene from "The Wild Olive," Today's Feature Offering at the Robinson Grand.ests of the Alleghenies to the cosmopolitan charm of Buenos Ayres, the gay capital of the Argentine. Myrtle Stedman who assumes the leading role of Miriam, one of the most sympathetic in modern fiction, is noted both for her beauty and ability as ancompany of stars will present the most astounding sensation ever seen on a screen, "Dr. Remeau."One of the big film laughs of the season is George Kleine's screaming comedy, "The Fixer," featuring Bickel and Watson founded on Willis M.
Goodhue's familiar stage farce, "Hello Bill." In addition to Bickel and Watson the cast includes Ben L. Taggart, Ruby Hoffman, Alma Hanlon and Snitz Edwards.The management of the Palace theater experienced a disappointment ternational Musical Comedy Company's

AT STOMACH MISERYWells and Haymaker Company Will Return the Money if Mi-o-na Does Not Relieve Dyspepsia.Among all the remedies in Wells and Haymaker's popular drug store, there are few that they are willing to sell on a guarantee to refund the money if they do not cure.Mi-o-na, the famous dyspepsia remedy has helped so many of their customers that Wells and Haymaker say, "If this remedy does not relieve you, come back to our store and we will cheerfully return your money."Anyone who has dyspepsia, indigestion, headaches, dizzy feelings or liver troubles, should take advantage of this chance to be made well without any risk of spending their money to no purpose. Mi-o-na will relieve you, will regulate the digestion, will enable you to eat what you want. If it does not do all this it will not cost you a cent.Wells and Haymaker have sold hundreds of bottles of Mi-o-na in the last few weeks and have yet to receive the first complaint from any customer. Such a record is simply unparalleled and speaks volumes for the merit of the remedy.It is easy enough to fill a column with the symptoms afflicting those who have dyspepsia, but there is not need of describing their condition. What they want is relief and they can get it in Mi-o-na. Do not suffer a day longer with disordered digestion. If Mi-o-na relieves you it costs you 50 cents a box; if it does not, you have Wells and Haymaker's personal guarantee to return your money. Alver-
